FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

YOUNG, GIFTED, & BLACK™ (YGB) ENTREPRENEURIAL AWARDS, INC.
“Jamaicans for Jamaica” Global Outreach Campaign Partners With Dennis Shipping Inc. &
Multiple NGOs To Support Hurricane Melissa Relief Efforts

New York, New York— (Thursday, November 6th 2025) The Young, Gifted & Black™ (YGB) Entrepreneurial Awards, Inc. in New York, President-Chairman, Carl O. Gray City, a native of St. Thomas, Jamaica in collaboration with Shauna Fung Yee, CEO-Founder of Down 2 Earth Agency in Kingston, a native of Westmoreland, Jamaica have partnered with several non-profit organizations and individuals who represent “Jamaicans for Jamaica” (J.F.J). Mr. Gray has launched the Jamaicans for Jamaica campaign to galvanize our Jamaican & Caribbean communities to support all rebuilding efforts after the devastation brought by Hurricane Melissa. This is a widespread campaign to support fundraising efforts currently in progress and drop-off supply donations.

The Young, Gifted & Black™ (YGB) Entrepreneurial Awards, Inc is a registered and approved IRS Tax Exempt 501 c(3) non-profit organization providing educational assistance to students towards tuition, books and/or lodging, small business, entrepreneurs, community base entities and qualified special programs through contributions.

Mr. Gray has strategically partnered with Dennis Shipping, Inc a leader in the shipping industry! Dennis Shipping provides exceptional, personalized local service in the Caribbean as well as in the Tri-State area. This partnership is made possible through Founder & YGB Alumni Honoree, Dennis Hawthorne & General Manager, Oshane Whittingham. The J.F.J. team is organizing a Relief Drive slated for Saturday, November 15, 2025 in partnership with Myer's Levin I.S. 285 in East Flatbush, Brooklyn in addition to having a container of Medical Supplies donated by One Brooklyn Health-Brookdale University Hospital Medical Center. Shipping to Jamaica is sponsored by Dennis Shipping, Inc.

The J.F.J. Team has partnered with several key non-profit organizations in the diaspora that are trusted, verified and accredited in addition to several others on the ground in Jamaica. These organizations are heavily working on the ground within impacted areas island wide by providing relief efforts to support victims and managing monetary donations along with perishable items.

The overall Mission of the J.F.J. is simple and straightforward: create a communication team whose main focus is to transmit information that brings awareness based on the most current needs assessment and clarifies the reputable organizations managing on the ground efforts for which monetary funding & supplies is required. Individuals can access the list of credible non-profits organizations at <https://www.ygbawards.org/jahurricanerelief>

"Jamaicans for Jamaica" plan of actions is to provide transparency through insightful data with the hopes that disbursements can be tracked to show the public how aid is allocated to support recovery & rebuilding efforts.

The Jamaicans for Jamaica (J.F.J.) Team is inviting other organizations and individuals to join this effort or let us know about what work is currently being executed so we can collaborate towards the rebuilding and recovery efforts. Feel free to send inquiries to ygbawards@ygbawards.org or down2earthagency@gmail.com
